Sunday 12th March

You are encouraged to have alpacas on display on Sunday and you can use this opportunity to promote your stud and your animals and sell product made from the fleeces of your animals. You may leave your show animals in the pens overnight after Saturday's show, or you may take them home and bring new ones on Sunday.

For a bit of fun, and a good public spectacle, we are also running a Cutest Cria Competition with a celebrity judge and prizes sponsored by Agrisea New Zealand Ltd.
Details of Cutest Cria Competition are below.

Cutest Cria Competition

A fun competition with a celebrity judge and lots of prizes!

Competition to start at 10.30am. Contestants to be assembled by 10.00am

Open to all cria under the age of 6 months – cria does not need to be registered or halter trained. Celebrity judge is not an alpaca judge and will judge purely on appeal, not on fleece quality. Entry forms will be available on Saturday 11th March at the Show, and entries may be made then or on Sunday. If you are not showing alpacas on Saturday, the A&H Society require your current TB Certificate to accompany your entry form. Entry is free.

Celebrity judge (to be advised)

Sponsored by Agrisea New Zealand Ltd

Cria will be exhibited in a secure pen so do not need to be halter trained. Cria exhibits will compete for:

Cutest Huacaya cria

Cutest Suri cria

Award for overall cutest cria

Special awards

Cria with the best markings

Cria with the fluffiest ears
